

Media Studies

A vintage silver microphone is the central focus, resting on a desk. In the background, there is a spiral-bound notebook and a pen, suggesting a study or creative workspace.

Media Studies
AS and A Level

You will develop an understanding of...

- Media Concepts, contexts and critical debates
- Media texts through analysis and evaluation
- How to plan and construct media texts along with technical and creative skills
- How to undertake, apply and present research

AS Course and A Level

AS Exam 24%

AS Coursework 16%

A Level Exam 36%

A Level Coursework 24%

A.S
Exam

Exam: Section 2
News in an Online Age.
Representation of an event

A.S
Exam

Exam: Section 3

From Wales to Hollywood

A.S
Coursewor
k

Coursework

Research, plan, produce, evaluate a Indie music video targeting 16-25 year olds

A2: Year 13

- Magazines
- Television: Crime Drama
- Video Games

- Advertising
- Journalism
- Event Manager
- Web design
- Social Media
- Marketing
- Researcher
- Production
- Post-Production

Why Media?

- Have a Grade C or above in English Language and English Literature
- Have an interest in learning about different media texts even ones you haven't seen or read before
- Have relevant editing and I.T skills needed to complete coursework OR be keen to learn new skills
- Be willing to utilise the library when researching topics
- Be prepared to write your ideas into extended essay responses

How to succeed in Media Studies

Media Studies

